Regular sponsorship or higher entitles the company to...

- Recognition at the symposium through announcement of sponsors.
- A draped table available in our exhibit area so that your company can display your products. The exhibit area will be located on the floor of the Ratcliffe Hicks arena with additional exhibits at the top of the arena and in hallways and classrooms if necessary.
- A business card sized advertisement included in the symposium program.

Sponsorships of $500 or more will be recognized with a larger advertisement (1/2 page) in the symposium program and display of sponsor provided banner.

All proceeds from the symposium are used to support equine extension and research programs such as funding experiments examining the effect of climate on pasture grasses, determining the incidence of gastric ulcers, and supporting future horse symposiums and activities such as the riding camp safety clinic at the University of Connecticut. Checks should be made out to the "University of Connecticut," with "2009 Horse Symposium" noted in the memo area. This completed form may be mailed with donation or faxed with donations to follow.
